International finance and international politics:
Professional experiences

Christina Müller (Dubai/London Stock Exchange)

Christina Müller draws upon her extensive experience at both the Dubai and London Stock Exchanges, offering attendees a unique and seasoned perspective on the intricate relationship between international finance and politics. Müller's insights promise a captivating exploration of the real-world implications that emerge from the dynamic interplay of these two domains. Attendees can expect to gain a deeper understanding of how decisions in global politics resonate within financial markets and, conversely, how financial dynamics influence political landscapes. The lecture, which will be held online, will be streamed in building 22, room 302.
